

I am a retired resident of New Jersey and am in agreement with the rules we have in this state. I do not want anyone calling me for any marketing proposals. We have enjoyed not being interrupted by these people. First, I don't know who I am really dealing with and am not interested in any product or service if I have not made the first inquiry.

frank swan